SWATT MAY/12/2021

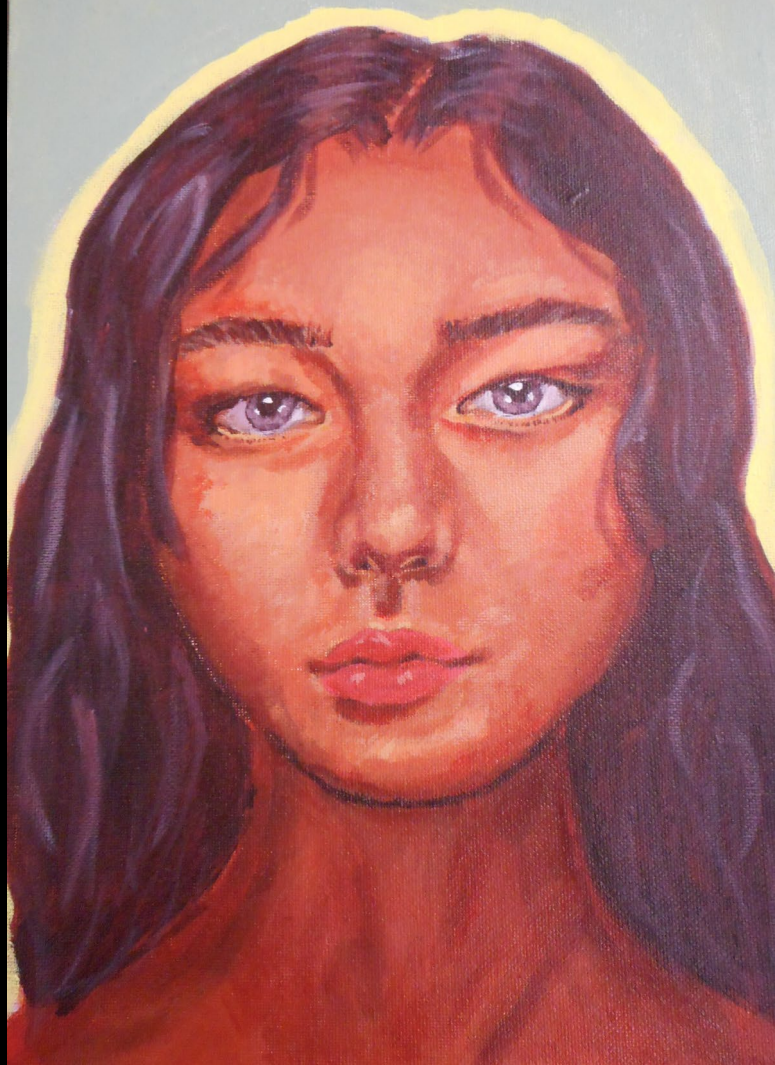

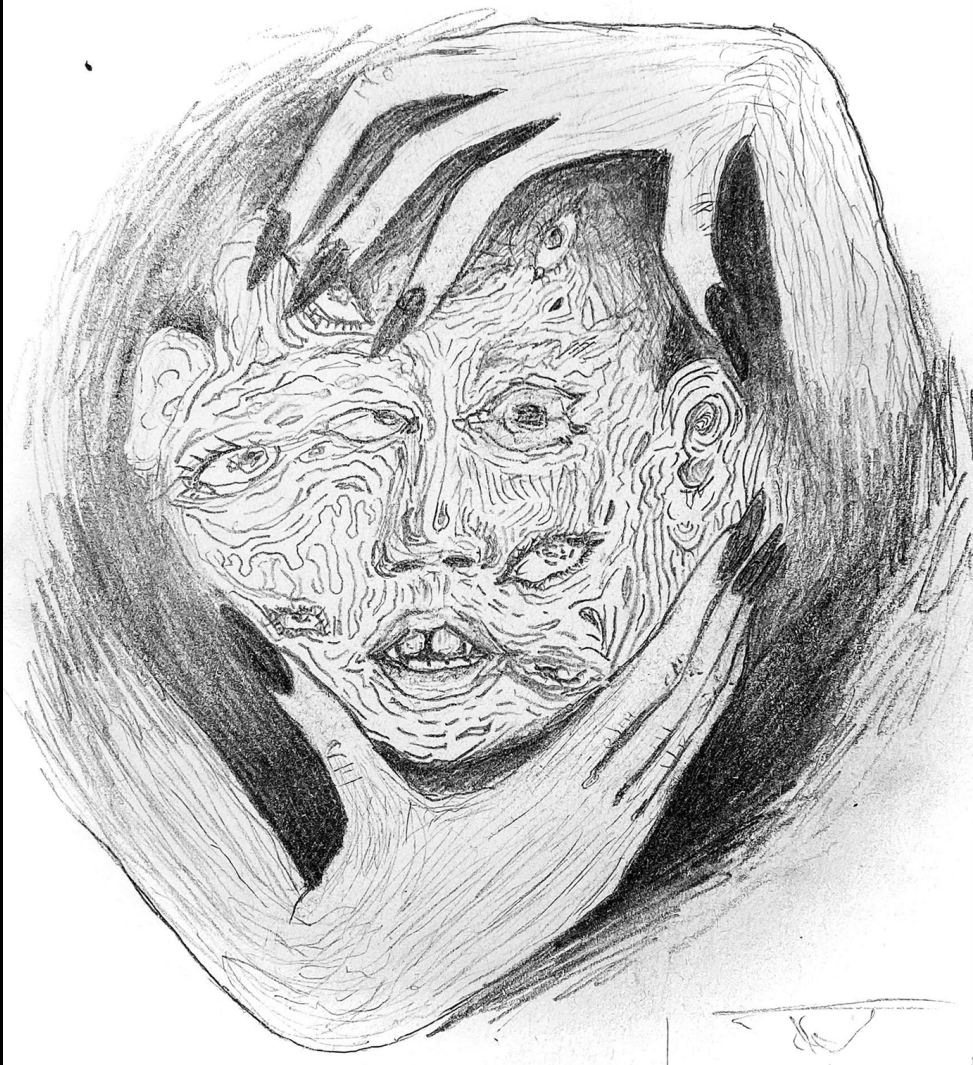

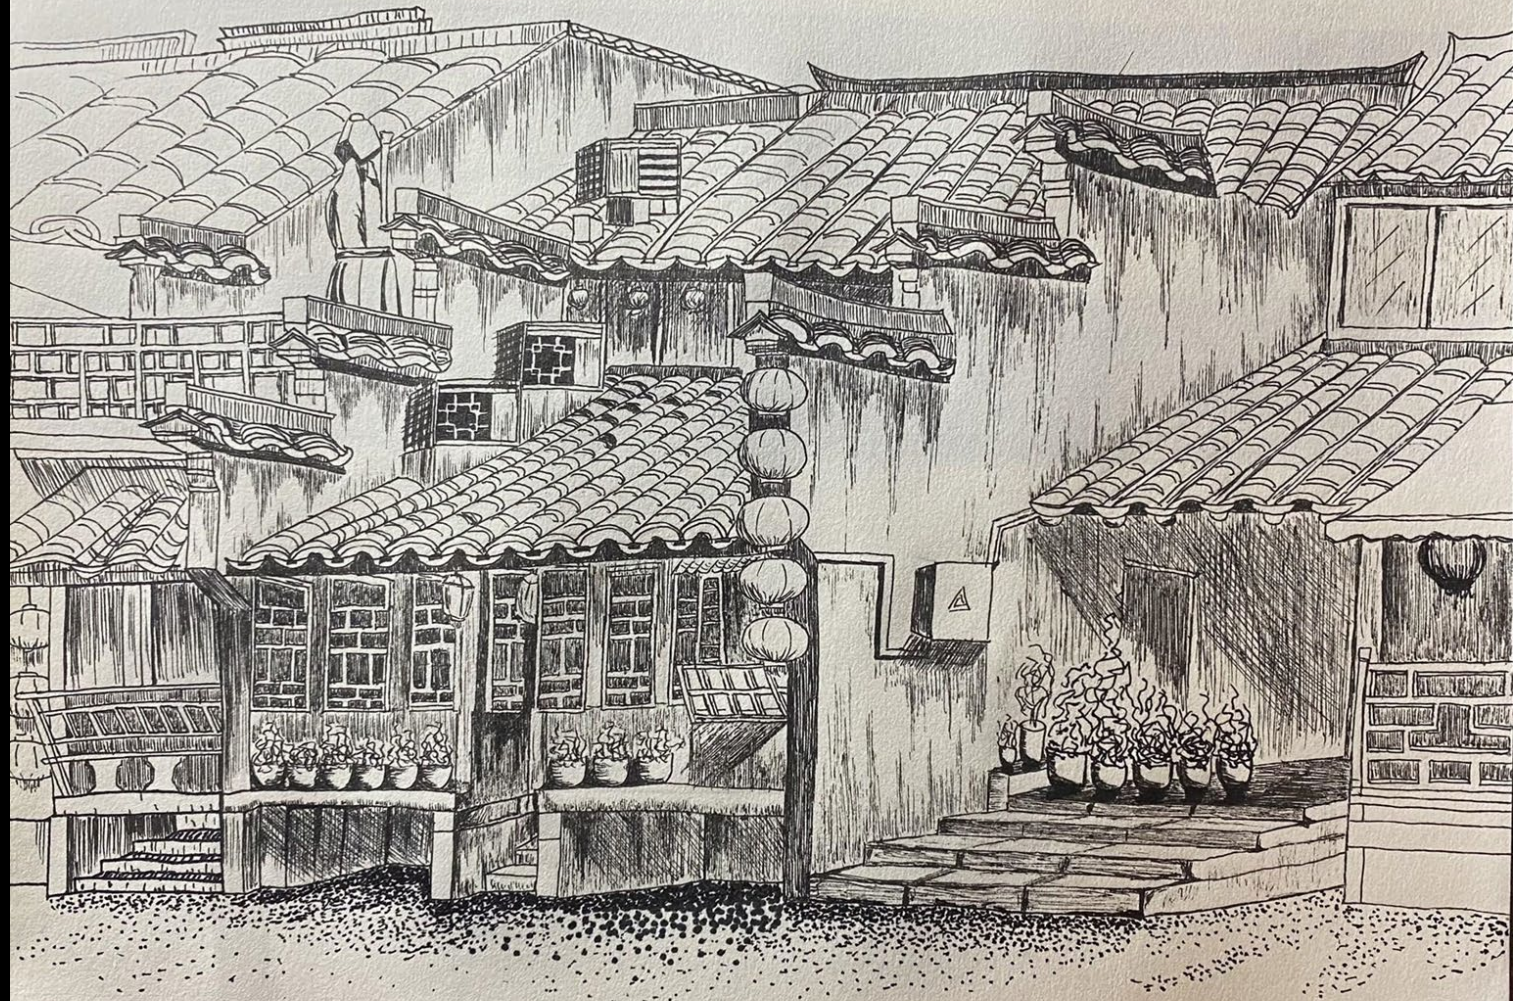

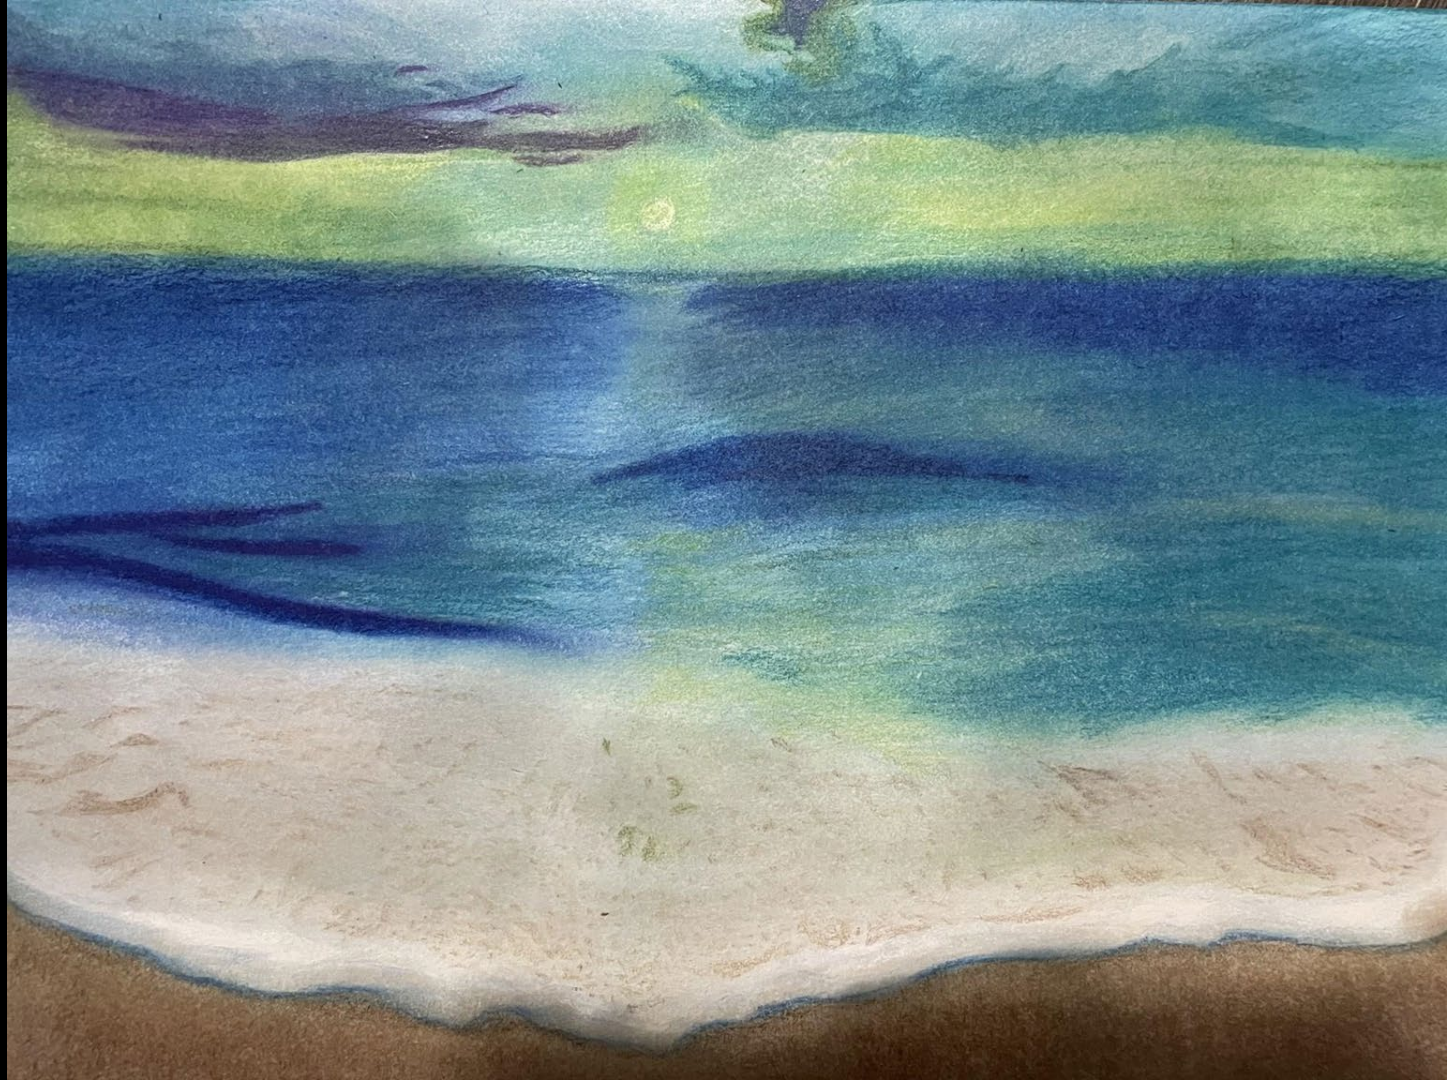

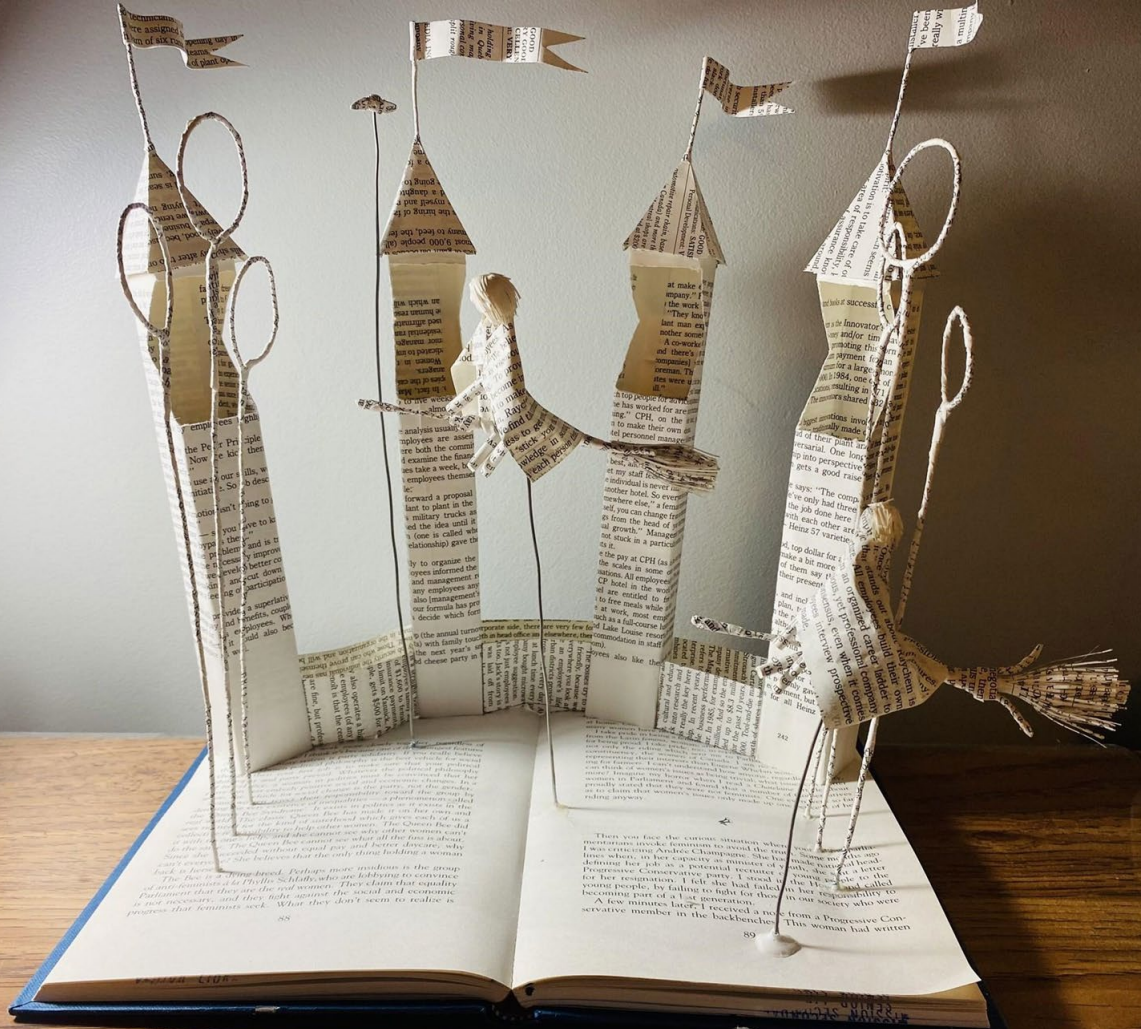

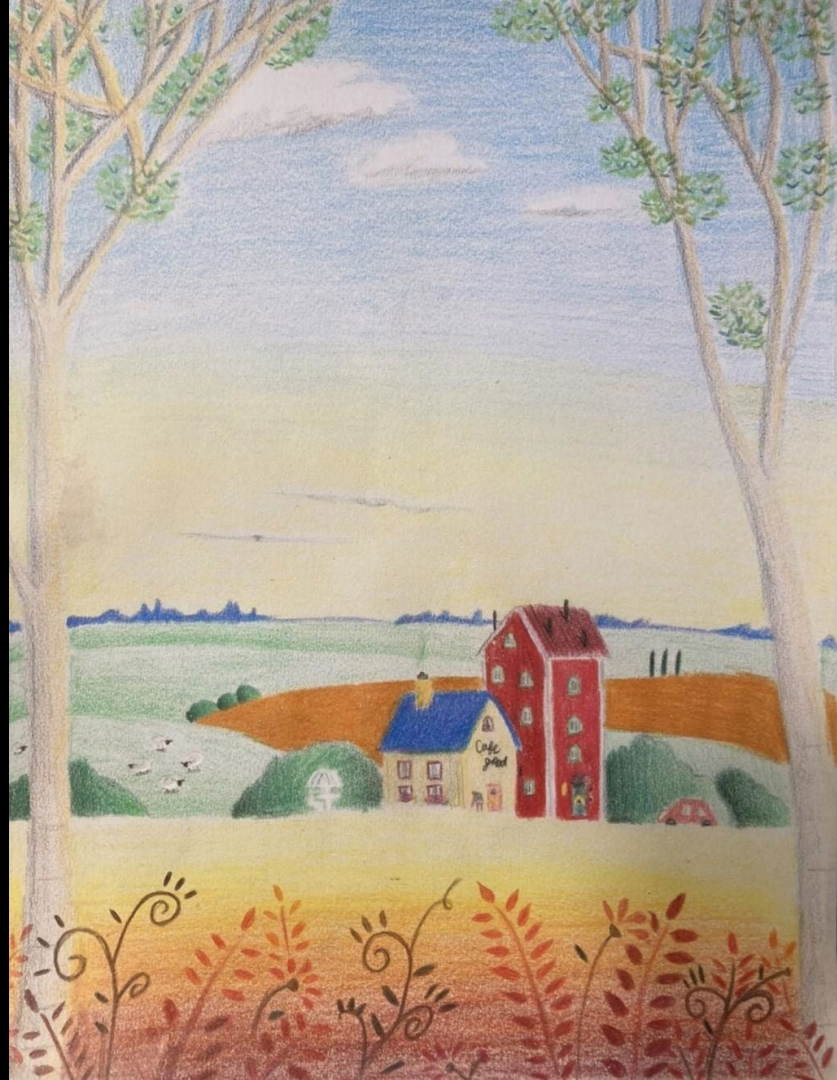

The fact is a "stronghead" perhaps more insidious is the group of anti-feminists led by Phyllis Schlafly, who are lobbying to convince Parliament that they are the real women. They claim that equality is not necessary, and they fight against the social and economic progress that feminists seek. What they don't seem to realize is

Then you face the curious situation which I was criticizing Archie Chapman. She had been given the job as a personal secretary to Progressive Conservative party. I used to be young people, by going to night for these becoming part of a list generation. A few minutes later I received a note from a Progressive Conservative member in the back benches. This woman had written
